

ON THE LINES

Wednesday, November 15th – 30 days on strike and standing strong!

#1 – HUGE ACTION AT MOTORCITY TONIGHT 6-9PM

- Everyone should come to MotorCity and sign in there (not at MGM or Greektown).
- AFL-CIO President Liz Schuler will bring solidarity from workers all across the USA!

#2 – BACK TO THE BARGAINING TABLE

- Last week, we reached a tentative agreement to protect our jobs from new technology.
- Today and tomorrow, the negotiating committee will be back at the table with the employers.

#3 – MGM STRIKERS ARE HOLDING THEIR GROUND

- Since the huge protest at MGM on Saturday, we have continued to hold our ground and stop the barricades from blocking our path on the sidewalks.

#4 – WE TOOK OUR FIGHT TO THE GAMING CONTROL BOARD

- Yesterday, over 100 strikers forced the Michigan Gaming Control Board to meet with us. We didn't get the answers we need. We'll be back!

#5 – WE TOOK OUR FIGHT TO THE CASINO COMPANIES' SHAREHOLDERS

- Yesterday, Alicia Weaver and Tavera McCree travelled to New York City with union leaders from Las Vegas to meet with the New York City Comptroller, one of the most powerful investors in the country.

#6 – CUSTOMERS ARE HONORING OUR PICKET LINES

- Crain's Detroit Business reported, "Costs from the strike are piling up, including lost tax revenue for the city and canceled events at the casinos." The National Kidney Foundation moved its ball away from MotorCity and the Detroit Downtown Partnership moved its annual Detroit Aglow fundraiser away from MGM.

#7 – THE STRIKE IS COSTING THE CASINOS MILLIONS

- Gaming revenues were down $20 million in October compared to last year – it was the lowest month for Detroit casinos since December 2020 when casinos were shut down for most of the month because of COVID restrictions.

ONE DAY LONGER! ONE DAY STRONGER!
